加太地区目標地図（加太北在家）

A detailed topographic map of a mountainous region. The map features numerous contour lines indicating elevation. A prominent road or railway line runs diagonally across the center. Several areas are highlighted with colored polygons: a large yellow and orange area in the upper left, a green and yellow area in the upper right, a green and yellow area in the lower left, and a green and yellow area in the lower right. The map also shows various smaller settlements and geographical features.
